THE VICTORIA CROSS

CONTINUED FROM

"The Monthly Army Lists" of March, June, July, October and December, 1857, January, February, May, July, September, October and November, 1858, January, February, May, June, July, August, October, November and December, 1859, February, March, June, July, September, October and December, 1860, March, April, August and September, 1861, March, June, July and December, 1862, May, 1863, and February, August, September, October and December, 1864, and August, 1865.

War Office, November, 28th, 1865.

THE QUEEN has been graciously pleased to signify her intention to confer the Decoration of "The Victoria Cross" on the under-mentioned Officer of Her Majesty's Army, whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, on account of an Act of Bravery performed by him in New Zealand, as stated against his name, viz. :—

18th Regiment.—Captain HUGH SHAW.—Date of Act of Bravery, January 24th, 1865.—For his gallant conduct at the skirmish near Nukumaru, in New Zealand, on the 24th of January last, in proceeding under a heavy fire with four Privates of the Regiment, who volunteered to accompany him, to within thirty yards of the bush occupied by the Rebels, in order to carry off a comrade who was badly wounded. On the afternoon of that day, Captain Shaw was ordered to occupy a position about half a mile from the Camp. He advanced in skirmishing order, and when about thirty yards from the bush, he deemed it prudent to retire to a palisade about sixty yards from the bush as two of his party had been wounded. Finding that one of them was unable to move, he called for volunteers to advance to the front to carry the man to the rear, and the four Privates referred to accompanied him, under a heavy fire, to the place where the wounded man was lying, and they succeeded in bringing him to the rear.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM. Gen. No. 358.

Addressed to the Army at Home and Abroad.

Courts Martial—1 (1865). Horse Guards, S. W., 22nd November, 1865.

The attention of His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief has been called to the variety of practice of Courts Martial in making reference to the Mutiny Act and Articles of War, in sentences of stoppages of pay and in other cases.

Such reference being unnecessary, His Royal Highness is pleased to direct that, for the future, in awarding stoppages of pay Courts Martial shall sentence the offender "to be put under stoppages of pay until he shall have made good the following articles (specifying them, and adding the pecuniary amount where necessary)" without further reference to the Mutiny Act and Articles of War.

Digitized by Google

His Royal Highness is likewise pleased to order that in all other sentences direct reference to the Mutiny Act and Articles of War is to be avoided, care being taken, as heretofore, that the sentence shall in each case duly conform to the provisions of the Mutiny Act and Articles of War applicable thereto.

A copy of this order is to be laid before all Courts Martial.

By Command of HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS
THE FIELD MARSHAL COMMANDING IN CHIEF.
